A Great Opportunity to Hear the Views of Senior Leaders!

Marketing in the Australian Foodservice market today takes different shapes depending on your channel of participation.

We have secured the services of senior people from the food distribution, commercial equipment and end user markets.

They will also take questions from the floor.

Part of our “Discussion Point” series, we strongly recommend you book early as places are limited.

It promises to be a fantastic chance to gain a view from successful “players” within our industry!

Don't miss this great opportunity – book early to ensure you have a place at the table.
